give reports and hear from and speakers relevant to from the University community.

B. Procedure

- 1. The general meeting shall be led by the President of the Council with the Chair of the Representative Body presiding over the Legislative Session.
- 2. In the event of extenuating circumstances, the general meeting and Legislative Session may both be held electronically.

C. Schedule of General Body Meetings

- 1. Time: General Body Meetings of the Representative Body shall be held starting at 6:30PM (18:30) every Tuesday during the fall and spring semesters when classes are in session and beginning on the first Tuesday of the semester.
  - a) The Representative Body may at any point, by a two-thirds vote at their first meeting of any semester, determine another date and/or time to schedule regular meetings. The frequency of meetings may not be changed except by an amendment to the Bylaws.
- 2. Agenda: All regular meetings shall proceed according to the following order of business, unless stated otherwise in the agenda distributed by the President, Chair, or altered with the consent of two-thirds of all Representatives present:
  - a) Inauguration and Elections: The following shall be the first items of business on the agenda when a newly-elected Representative Body convenes for the first time:
    - (i) Oath of Office: The Oath of Office shall be administered to all new Executive Officers and Representatives.
    - (ii) Election of Chair: A Chair of the Representative Body shall be elected as described in Section B, Subsection 2.
    - (iii) Assignment to Committee: The newly elected Chair of the Representative Body shall appoint each Representative to a Representative Committee.

- b) Roll Call: The roll shall be called.
- c) Speaker: A guest speaker may be invited to address the Representative Body.
- d) Executive Reports: The Chair of the Representative Body, President, Vice President for Administration, Vice President for Organizations, and Chief of Cabinet shall deliver brief reports on their areas of constitutional oversight.
- e) Leadership Reports: Reports from all Council Committees, Vice President for Administration Committees, Vice President for Organizations Committees, and Representatives.
- f) Public Comment: Any member of the student body may speak on a piece of legislation on the table during this period. Speakers should sign-up for public comment before the start of the General Body Meeting.
- g) Legislative Session Meetings of the Representative Body: The purpose of the legislative meeting shall be for the Representative Body to consider legislation, appeals, and other business.
  - (i) Roll Call: The roll shall be called.
  - (ii) Approval of Minutes: A vote to approve the minutes of the previous meeting shall be taken.
  - (iii) Old Legislative Business: Any bills tabled at a previous meeting of the Representative Body shall be considered.
  - (iv) New Legislative Business: Any newly-introduced bills shall be read into the record.
  - (v) Judicial Business: Any pending Appeals, Review Hearings, or Impeachment Trials shall be held after all other business is concluded.
  - (vi) Adjournment: The legislative meeting shall be adjourned.

h) Community Concerns: Members of the University of Virginia community who wish to speak may address the Representative Body.

II. Membership Responsibilities

A. New Members

- Orientation: New members of the Council shall complete an orientation for new members during the fall semester of the new administration led by the Vice President for Administration.
- 2. General Body Membership Requirements: The Vice President for Administration may set requirements to be completed by members of the Council.

B. Removal of Members

- 1. By Executive Board: Any member of the Council who fails to satisfy the membership requirements or their responsibilities may be removed by their overseeing member of the Executive Board.
- 2. By Appointed Officers: Any member of the Council who fails to satisfy the membership requirements or their responsibilities may be removed by their overseeing Appointed Officer with the advice and consent of their overseeing member of the Executive Board.

Article II. Representative Body Policies

I. Representatives

A. General Policies

- 1. Oath: All Representatives shall take the following oath before assuming office:
  - a) "On my honor, I will perform the duties of the office of Representative to the best of my ability, and I will uphold the Constitution and Bylaws of the University of Virginia Student Council."

- 2. Classifications of Representatives:
  - a) School- Affiliated Representative: a Representative elected by students belonging to a particular school within the University.
  - b) Non-School-Affiliated Representative: a Representative of a cross-school constituency (First Year Representatives and Transfer Representatives).

B. Duties of Representatives

- 1. All Representatives, in order to discharge their duties as described in Art. II, Sect. 2 of the Student Council Constitution, shall have the following duties:
  - a) The Voice of Constituents: Each Representative shall serve as the official voice of their constituents in issues affecting their constituencies and the student body as a whole.
  - b) Committee Service: Representatives may be required to serve on at least one Presidential Committee and shall be required to serve on at least one Representative Committee.
    - (i) The Chair shall appoint Representatives to these committees and determine the Presidential Committee requirements.
  - c) Attendance at Representative Meetings: Representatives shall be required to attend all General, Legislative, Committee meetings, and Representative meetings called by the Chair of the Representative Body. Failure to attend to comply with this requirement is subject to the stipulations outlined in Sub-Section C.

C. Attendance Policy

- 1. Excused Absences: A Representative may be excused from attending a meeting of the Representative Body if all the following criteria are met:
  - a) Legitimate Reason for Absence: The Representative must be prevented from attending the meeting because of illness, a family or personal emergency, extreme and unforeseen circumstances, a test or other official academic commitment, or participation as an athlete in a scheduled intercollegiate competition; social and extracurricular commitments shall not be considered legitimate reasons for absence.

- b) Timely Notification of Chair: The Representative must notify the Chair of their absence at least twenty-four hours before the start of a meeting, or as soon as practically possible in the event of extreme and unforeseen circumstances.
- c) Appointment of Proxy: An absent Representative must appoint a proxy as described in Subsection D.
- d) Maximum Number of Excused Absences: A Representative may not accumulate more than two excused absences per semester.
- e) Additional Excused Absences for Graduate Representatives: A Graduate Representative may petition the Chair to receive additional excused absences, which shall be granted at the Chair's discretion.
- 2. Unexcused Absences: A Representative who is absent without meeting all of the criteria described in Part a. of this section shall receive an unexcused absence.
  - a) Maximum Number of Unexcused Absences: A Representative may accumulate no more than one unexcused absence per semester.
  - b) Consequences for Unexcused Absences: A Representative who accumulates more than one unexcused absence in a single semester shall be considered to have resigned from office at which point the Chair shall declare the seat vacant by resignation, and inform the appropriate governing body to ask for their replacement.
- 3. Late Arrival and Early Departures: The Chair shall have the discretion to record a one-half absence for any Representative who arrives late to a meeting, or leaves a meeting while official business is still pending without prior notification of the Chair; this one-half absence shall only be considered excused if it meets all of the criteria listed in Part 1.

D. Proxies

1. Definition of a Proxy: A Proxy is an individual appointed by an absent Representative to speak on their behalf at a meeting of the Representative Body.

- 2. Eligibility: A Proxy must meet the following requirements:
  - a) Representation: A Proxy must be a student of the constituency of the Representative that they are replacing.
  - b) Not Serving in Any Other Capacity: A Representative's Proxy may not be another Representative, a Proxy for another Representative, an Appointed Officer, an Executive Officer, or the Parliamentarian.
  - c) Prior Notification. A Representative must inform the Chair of the name of any proxy at the time of his or her informing the same of the Representative's absence (see II.I.C.1.b above). At the Chair's discretion, the Chair shall refuse to admit proxies with less than twenty-four hour notification, except under extreme and unforeseen circumstances.
  - d) Limit: A Representative may have proxies present on their behalf at a maximum of two meetings in a given semester. If extenuating circumstances arise, the Chair of the Representative may extend the number of proxies at their discretion.
- 3. Powers of a Proxy: A proxy may ask questions and participate in debate, but may not make any motions, except points of order or points of personal privilege, or vote on legislation.
- 4. Quorum and Recording of Votes: A proxy shall be counted towards quorum, such that they shall always be included in the calculation of total votes cast; however, their vote shall always be recorded as "abstain".

II. Chair of the Representative Body

A. Duties of the Chair

- 1. Chairing Representative Body Meetings: The Chair shall serve as the chairperson of the Representative Body when it meets, unless this responsibility is delegated to a Chair Pro Tempore as described in Subsection 4.
- 2. Organizing Representative Body Meetings: The Chair shall make the arrangements for all Representative Body meetings as follows:

- a) Agenda: The Chair shall set the meeting agenda, and distribute it with the previous meeting's minutes, all new and pending legislation, and any other items of business to all members of the Representative Body at least forty-eight hours before each regularly scheduled meeting.
- b) Location: The Chair shall make arrangements for an appropriate meeting location, as well as the availability of all necessary furnishings and equipment.
- 3. Appointments: The Chair shall be responsible for appointing the officers listed in Subsection C.
- 4. Allocation of Representatives: The Chair shall be responsible for ensuring that all Schools of the University are fully represented on Council, following the requirements of the Constitution (Art II, Section 2.B-D), as follows:
  - a) Notification of Vacancies: The Chair shall notify a School's governing Council when a vacancy occurs in one of its Representative seats so that it may appoint a replacement or schedule a special election. Vacancies in Transfer Student Representative seats must be filled by special election. Vacancies in non-affiliated First Year Representative seats shall be filled by the First Year Council through either appointment or special election.
  - b) Verification of the Allocation of Seats: The Chair, by the first day of spring semester, shall determine the number of seats to be allocated to each school and shall provide this information to the University Board of Elections, or its successor.
  - c) Allocation Procedure: The Chair shall use the fall enrollment figures calculated by the Office of Institutional Assessment and Studies to determine the number of seats that shall be allocated to each School. The total number in each school shall be used to determine the number of seats to be filled in spring elections. One representative will be apportioned per 1000 students in each school. Seats for transfer students and first year students shall be allocated as if they were a separate school and elected in a separate election each fall.
- 5. Enforcing Attendance: The Chair, or their designee, shall be responsible for monitoring the attendance of all Representatives, notifying them of unexcused absences, and removing representatives from office for violations (see II.1.C).

- 6. Participation in Debate: If the Chair wishes to speak for or against a bill pending before the Representative Body, they must first relinquish their seat to a Chair Pro Tempore for such time as the Chair wishes to participate.
- 7. Ensuring Accountability: The Chair shall be responsible for recording votes and reporting the results to the Student Council website.

B. Procedure for Electing the Chair

1. Nominations:

- a) Request for Nominations: The President shall assume the chair and open the floor for nominations.
- b) Nomination and Seconds: Any Representative may nominate any other Representative, but no Representative may nominate themselves. This nomination must then be seconded by another Representative. Only Representatives may make nominations; the President, Vice President for Administration, and Vice President for Organizations may not do so.
- c) Candidacy: If a Representative accepts a nomination, they shall become a candidate for the position of Chair of the Representative Body.

2. Speeches and Questions:

- a) Order of Speeches: Once the floor is closed for nominations, each candidate shall be allowed up to five minutes to deliver a speech, in the order in which the candidates were nominated.
- b) Endorsements: After each candidate has given their five minute speech, members of the Representative Body or the Executive Board may opt to give a speech in support of one of the proposed candidates that may not exceed two minutes. Speeches can only be in favor of one single candidate, and no individual may speak twice.
- c) Questions: After each candidate has spoken, members of the Representative Body shall be allowed up to fifteen minutes to ask questions, which may be extended by a majority vote of all Representatives. Each question must be answered by all candidates in the order in which they were nominated, and each response may not exceed one minute in length.

3. Elections:

- a) Circumstances for Voting: If only one candidate has been nominated, the President shall request unanimous consent to elect that candidate as Chair. If more than one candidate has been nominated, the decision will be put to a vote by closed ballot.
- b) Balloting: Each Representative shall rank the candidates according to preference on a ballot, and submit this ballot to the President. Candidates shall be eligible to cast votes.
- c) Counting the Ballots: The ballots shall be counted in private by the Chair of the Rules and Ethics Board. The number of first-rank votes shall first be tabulated. If a majority is not attained by any candidate, the candidate with the lowest number of first-rank votes shall be eliminated and their votes distributed according to the next-ranking choice on the ballots. This shall continue until one candidate shall have attained a majority of the votes. Tabulations for each round will be kept.
- d) Announcement of Results: The President shall announce the name of the winning candidate to the Representative Body, administer the oath of office to the candidate, and then yield the gavel to the newly-elected Chair.
- e) Timing: The Chair may be elected at a meeting of the elected Representatives between their election and their first official meeting.

C. Appointments by the Chair

- 1. Representative Body Committee Chairs: The Chair shall appoint all Chair and Vice-Chairs of the Representative Body Committees. They will serve at the discretion of the Chair of the Representative Body.
- 2. Permanent Chair Pro Tempore: The Chair shall appoint a representative as Chair Pro Tempore to serve as their permanent proxy or under such situations as elaborated in II.II.D.2 of these Bylaws.
- 3. Parliamentarian: The Chair shall recognize the Chair of the Rules and Ethics Board to serve as Parliamentarian during meetings of the Representative Body.

- a) Selection: The Chair of the Rules and Ethics Board shall be selected according to the procedure enunciated in Article VI, II, B.1.c of the Bylaws.
- b) Duties: The Chair of the Rules and Ethics Board shall have the following duties:
  - (i) Resolve Disputes of Rules and Authority: The Chair has the authority to correct any rule infringements and disputes concerning rules and authority. The Chair maintains final ruling, but the Rules and Ethics Board will evaluate any discrepancies.
- 4. Notification of Appointments: The Chair must notify the Representative Body of any appointments both in writing immediately upon the appointments being made and during the next meeting of the Representative Body following the appointment.

D. Chair Pro Tempore

- 1. Definition: Any Representative who temporarily chairs a meeting of the Representative Body in place of the Chair shall be referred to as the Chair Pro Tempore.
- 2. Circumstances for Appointing a Chair Pro Tempore: A temporary Chair Pro Tempore shall be appointed under any of the following circumstances:
  - a) Absence of Chair: The Chair and the Representative designated by the Chair to serve as the permanent Chair Pro Tempore are absent.
  - b) Conflict of Interest: Both the Chair and the permanent Chair Pro Tempore when acting as Chair have a conflict of interest regarding an item of business pending before the Representative Body.
  - c) Participation in Debate: The permanent Chair Pro Tempore, when serving as the Chair, wishes to speak for or against a bill pending before the Representative Body or otherwise wishes to participate in debate.
- 3. Qualifications of Chairs Pro Tempore: Only Representatives may serve as Chair Pro Tempore; no executive or appointed Officer may do so, except for the President when they oversee the election of a Chair as described in Subsection B of this section.

- 4. Appointing a Chair Pro Tempore During a Meeting: A Chair Pro Tempore may be appointed during a meeting as follows:
  - a) Selection by Chair: The Chair, or the permanent Chair Pro Tempore, may yield the gavel to another Representative at any time, unless an objection is made by a Representative and sustained by a majority of all Representatives present.
  - b) Motion to Appoint a Chair Pro Tempore: Any Representative may make a motion to appoint a Chair Pro Tempore, if they believe that the Chair or the current Chair Pro Tempore to have a conflict of interest; this motion must be approved by a majority of all Representatives present.
- 5. Appointing a Chair Pro Tempore Before a Meeting: A Chair Pro Tempore may be appointed before the start of a meeting as follows:
  - a) Selection by Chair: If the Chair will be absent or otherwise unable to participate in a meeting, and in the event that the permanent Chair Pro Tempore cannot serve, they shall appoint another Representative to serve as Chair Pro Tempore and notify the Representative Body of this decision.
  - b) Any Representative: If the Chair is absent and has not designated a Chair Pro Tempore, any Representative present may gavel in the meeting but must immediately ask for the consent of the Representative Body to proceed as Chair Pro Tempore.

E. Removal and Replacement of the Chair

- 1. Impeachment: Since the Chair is an Executive Officer, they may only be removed from office by impeachment; however, a Chair who is removed from office for violations of their duties as Chair, and not for violations of their duties as a Representative, shall be eligible to remain on Council as a Representative.
- 2. Replacement of Chair: In the event of the Chair's resignation or removal from office, a new Chair shall be elected at the next regular meeting of the Representative Body, using the procedure described in Subsection B.
- 3. Replacement of a Permanent Chair Pro Tempore: The permanent Chair Pro Tempore may be summarily dismissed by the Chair at any time or impeached by the Representative Body only for actions taken while acting as Chair.

III. Representative Committees

A. Organization

- 1. Internal Affairs Committee: Shall consider matters internal to Council such as management of Council meetings and records; judicial proceedings not including Rules and Ethics proceedings under Student Council's jurisdiction; proper numbering, recording, and documentation of Representative Body legislation; oversight and review of internal Student Council budget allocations, including preparing recommendations to the Representative Body on the passage of proposed budgets and the approval of requested reallocations of funds after the passage of the budget; recruitment and management of Representative Aide Staff; creation of institutionalized Representative training materials; coordination of legislation and Cabinet activity; and other matters at the discretion of the Chair.
- 2. External Affairs Committee: Shall consider matters external to Council such as concerns and affairs of CIOs and Special Status organizations, insofar as they represent the concerns of student constituencies. Members shall attend meetings of organizations who endorse Student Council candidates for that year's elections and others at the discretion of the Chair. The Chair of External Affairs shall engage pre-existing student coalitions, dorms, and other large student groupings. External Affairs at large shall coordinate constituent outreach such as organization of town halls, maintenance and responses to community posts, and Representative Body-specific social media accounts, other matters at the discretion of the Chair.
- 3. Community Concerns Committee: Shall consider and resolve concerns related to the welfare of the University population as raised in the "Community Concerns" portion of General Body Meetings. The Chair of the Community Concerns Committee must record the concerns raised in "Community Concerns" and assign issue resolution to members of their committee.
- B. Relationship of Committees to the Chair of the Representative Body

1. Committee and Chair Relationship: The Chair of the Representative Body is responsible for the assignment of matters to committees and has full discretion in this area. Chairs and Vice-Chairs of individual Representative Body Committees shall serve at the pleasure of the Chair.

C. Duties of Chairs of Representative Body Committees

1. Chairing Meetings: The Chair shall serve as the presiding officer of their respective Representative Body Committee when it meets.

IV. Meetings and Meeting Procedures

A. General Rules for Meetings

- 1. Executive Session: When considering sensitive matters, the Representative Body may vote to enter executive session as follows:
  - a) Procedure: A motion to enter executive session may be made at any time by any Representative or Executive Officer, and shall require the majority approval of all Representatives present.
  - b) Members Permitted to Be Present: When the Representative Body is in executive session, only Representatives, Executive Officers, the Parliamentarian, the Recording Secretary, and shall be present; all other individuals shall be escorted from the room.
  - c) Freedom of Information Act: When the Representative Body enters executive session, it shall comply with the sections of the Virginia Freedom of Information Act that apply to "Executive or Closed Meetings".

2. Voting:

- a) Types of Voting: Votes of the Representative Body may be taken by a show of hands or by a calling of the roll; no votes shall be taken by secret ballot except for the election of the Chair.
- b) Tie Votes: In accordance with standard parliamentary practice, a tie vote shall be considered a failing vote; all votes must achieve a numerical majority in order to be considered passing except for such procedural motions and situations explicitly stated in these Bylaws.

3. Rules of Order: Except as specified otherwise in these Bylaws, the Representative Body's meetings shall be governed according to the most recent official edition of Robert's Rules of Order.

4. Quorum:

- a) Verification of Quorum: Any Representative who believes that the necessary two-thirds quorum for transacting business is lacking shall ask the Chair to verify quorum, which shall be granted immediately and without question.
- b) Ban on Transacting Business in the Absence of Quorum: In the absence of a quorum, the Representative Body may not vote on any item of business. Debate on any item of business may occur provided that 1/4 of Representatives are present and accurate minutes are kept and disseminated to the entire Representative Body so that a vote may occur at the next meeting where quorum is established, contingent on the continuing of a debate if requested by any Representative. The only motions in order if at least 1/4 of representatives are not present shall be to call the roll, recess, adjourn, or take actions to establish the 1/4 minimum and/or quorum.
- c) Cancellation of Meetings: At the discretion of the Chair of the Representative Body for Representative Body meetings and Committee Chairs for Committee meetings, a meeting may be cancelled if there is a lack of business, an anticipated lack of quorum, or if inclement weather, safety considerations, or other unusual circumstances prevent the meeting from taking place; in all such cases, the Chair shall notify to the best of his or her abilities the Representative Body or Committee membership and any pending business shall be postponed.

B. Representative Body Committee Meetings

- 1. Representative Body Committee Meeting: The purpose of the committee meeting shall be for the Representative Committees to discuss their designated functions as stated in II.3.
- 2. Schedule of Representative Body Committee Meetings: Committee meetings shall be held at the discretion of Representative Committee Chairs.

3. Agenda: The agenda shall be set by discretion of the Representative Committee Chair.

C. Special Meetings

- 1. Definition: A special meeting is one that is not held at the normal time and day of the week for regular General Body meetings.
- 2. Procedure for Calling a Special Meeting: The President or Chair of the Representative Body may call a special meeting at any time for such reasons that they shall specifically state; the Chair must also do so if presented with a petition from at least one-quarter of all Representatives.
- 3. Notification: A reasonable effort shall be made by the Chair and President to inform all Representatives and Officers of the time and location for the special meeting at least twenty-four hours in advance.
- 4. Restrictions on Business: During a special meeting, the only business that may be transacted shall be that for which the meeting was specifically called; any Representative may later motion to reconsider actions taken at a special meeting if they can demonstrate that one or more Representatives were not properly notified of the special meeting's time and place.
- 5. Non-Academic Session Meetings: If, during such times when the University is not in regular session, an issue arises of critical importance to the student body or Student Council and requiring their immediate attention, the President or Chair may call an extraordinary meeting of Student Council the unanimous consent of the President, Vice President for Administration, Vice President for Organizations, and Chair of the Representative Body being required for issuance of such a call at such time and place as they shall jointly determine. In such cases, every accommodation shall be made to gather the voices and input of the entire Representative Body in particular if they cannot physically be present at the meeting location.

V. Legislation

A. Rules for Legislation

1. Eligibility to Submit Legislation: Representatives and any other members "with voice" as specified in the Constitution may introduce legislation.

- 2. Submission of Legislation to the Chair: All legislation must be presented to the Chair in their final form at least seventy-two hours before the General Body meeting, so that they may be placed on the agenda and distributed to all Representatives beforehand; exceptions to this rule shall only be permitted at the discretion of the Chair.
- 3. Title and Sponsor: All legislation shall have a title and at least one sponsor, both of which must be listed at the top of the bill; at the discretion of the sponsor(s), a piece of legislation may be designated as being "on behalf of" one or more individuals or committees of the Council.
- 4. Record of Legislation: Copies of all pieces of legislation and a record of the votes on each piece of legislation, regardless of the outcome, shall be posted on the Student Council website.
- 5. Amendment and Debate of Legislation: A piece of legislation may not be amended or debated in the legislative session until it is eligible to be put to a vote; until this time, only questions of a factual nature may be directed towards the legislation's sponsor(s).
- 6. Amendments to the Bylaws: Amendments to the Bylaws may only be amended after their second reading.
- 7. Numbering System: All legislation shall be numbered according to its semester, year, and sequence of introduction in the following format:
  - a) Semester. "F" or "S" to indicate the fall or spring semester
  - b) Designation. "B", "P", or "R"; to Bill, Proclamation, or Resolution.
  - c) Year: The last two digits of the calendar year, followed by a dash.
  - d) Sequence: The order in which the legislation was introduced during this semester.
- 8. Signing: All passed legislation must be signed by the President and all the sponsors of the legislation.

B. Types of Legislation

1. Bills

a) Purpose and Format: The purpose and format of the bill depends on the type of bill, outlined in the following subsections:

i) Budget:

- a) Initiated by the Vice President for Administration: Budget bills may only be introduced by the Vice President for Administration.
- b) Format: A budget bill shall include all the information specified in Article II, Section V, and Subsection B.
- c) Limitations: Only one Annual Budget shall be passed by the Representative Body per academic year; alterations to the budget must be introduced to the Representative Body.
- ii) Recognition of Contracted Independent Organizations (CIOs):
  - a) Initiated by Vice President for Organizations: Bills to recognize or deny recognition to Contracted Independent Organizations may only be introduced by the Vice President for Organizations.
  - b) Format: Recognition bills shall include all the information specified in Article IV, Section I, Subsection A, and Part 3.
- iii) Suspension or Restriction of a Contracted Independent Organization:
  - a) Initiation: Any member of the Representative Body may introduce a bill to suspend or restrict the Council's recognition of a Contracted Independent Organization pending a review hearing before the Representative Body.
  - b) Format: Review bills shall state the reason for holding a hearing on the status of a Contracted Independent Organization, which must specify one or more of the criteria listed in Article IV, Section II, Subsection A, and Part 2.

iv) Amendments to the SAF Guidelines:

- a) Initiated by the Vice President for Organizations: A Bill to amend the Student Activities Fee Guidelines that guide the Appropriations process.
- b) Format: The Bill should include the significant changes to the Guidelines and call upon the Representative Body to accept the new Guidelines in full. The VPO must provide a copy of the full, updated SAF Guidelines to the Representatives to consider.
- c) Limitations: Amendments to the SAF Guidelines must be approved by 2/3 of the Representative Body.

- b) Directors: The Organizations Recognition Committee shall be led by a Director or co-Directors, appointed by the Vice President for Organizations with the majority approval of the Representative Body.

4. Board of Audit and Management

- a) Responsibilities: The Board of Audit and Management shall be responsible for hearing initial appeals of SAF funding decisions from CIOs, auditing Appropriations Committee funding decisions to ensure consistency, fairness, and accuracy, and auditing the internal finances of Student Council to inform to the student body and create transparency.
- b) Directors: The Board of Audit and Management shall be led by a Director or co-Directors, appointed by the Vice President for Organizations with the majority approval of the Representative Body.
- 5. Director of Funding Reform and Support: The Director of Funding Reform and Support shall be tasked with overhauling and centralizing the provision of financial resources to Contracted Independent Organizations by Student Council to address current gaps in accessibility and equity. The Director shall be jointly appointed by the President and the Vice President for Organizations with the majority approval of the Representative Body, and shall have the following duties:

- a) Financial Centralization: The Director of Funding Reform and Support shall coordinate with the Director of Appropriations, Director of Coalition Engagement, and Director of Diversity Engagement to centralize Student Activities Fee Funding allocations to Contracted Independent Organizations, co-sponsorships, and Diversity Grants under a unified process.
- b) Targeted Support: The Director of Funding Reform and Support shall work alongside the Director of Appropriations, Director of Coalition Engagement, and Director of Diversity Engagement to provide individualized support to Contracted Independent Organizations to assist them in effectively accessing and navigating relevant funding streams.
- c) Student Activities Fee Appropriations Reform: The Director of Funding Reform and Support shall devise and implement a plan alongside the Director of Appropriations and Vice President for Organizations to overhaul the Student Activities Fee appropriations process in order to provide more frequent opportunities for funding, decrease the turnaround time between requesting and receiving funding, reduce reliance on reimbursements as a key funding mechanism, promote stronger internal data collection, and promote more effective relationships between the Appropriations Committee and Contracted Independent Organizations.
- d) Auditing Reform: The Director of Funding Reform and Support shall devise and implement a plan along with the Director of the Board of Management and Vice President for Organizations to refocus auditing towards more constructive efforts and away from punitive investigations of Contracted Independent Organizations.
- e) Monitoring and Reporting: The Director of Funding Reform and Support shall monitor funding data and communicate with Contracted Independent Organizations to assess the efficacy of reform initiatives and provide routine reports to the Representative Body during General Body meetings on the progress made towards accomplishing the aforementioned objectives and future actions to be taken.

- f) Information Access: The Director of Funding Reform and Support shall have full access to data and information regarding the funding Contracted Independent Organizations through Student Activities Fee appropriations, co-sponsorships, diversity grants, or any other form of financial assistance that Student Council provides to external organizations so that they can effectively carry out their duties and responsibilities.
- g) Advisor to the Vice President for Organizations: The Director shall serve on the Executive Board of the Council in order to serve as an advisor to the Vice President for Organizations and ensure sufficient coordination between providers of financial resources across different branches.

IX. Budget Policies

A. Budget Guidelines

- 1. Fiscal Year: The Student Council shall have two operating budgets: Annual and Summer. The Summer Budget shall only be entertained after the new Administration has taken office. The fiscal year shall last from the first day after exams conclude in the first year to the last day of final exams in the second year.
  - a) The Annual Budget shall go into effect once the Student Activities Committee and Representative Body approve it and shall be in effect until the last day of classes.
  - b) The Summer Budget shall be passed in the Spring Semester, after the new Administration has taken office, and will go into effect on the first day of the summer recess until the Student Activities Committee and Representative Body approve the Annual Budget.
- 2. Oversight of the Budget: The budget shall be monitored as follows:
  - a) Balancing of Budget: The Director of Finance shall balance and reconcile the Council's budget on a regular basis while classes are in session.
  - b) Procedure for Irregularities: If the Director of Finance discovers any irregularities, they shall bring them to the attention of the Vice President for Administration, as well as the other Executive Officers and the University administration if warranted.

- c) Audits: At the conclusion of each budget cycle, the Board of Audit and Management shall audit the Student Council's expenses and publish a report of its expenses to the student body.
- 3. Carryover of Budget Surplus: Any surplus in the Council's budget at the end of a fiscal year shall be released back into their respective funding pools.
- 4. Misuse of Council Funds: The deliberate use of Council funds by any member for a purpose other than that specified in the Council's budget, shall constitute grounds for impeachment.

B. Creation of the Annual Budget

- 1. Drafting of Budget: In consultation with the Executive Officers, the Director of Finance shall draft an Annual Budget for the coming year, based on anticipated revenues.
  - a) Discretionary Funds: No one but the Executive Board or the Representative Body shall request any discretionary funds.
  - b) Authorization to Cut the Budget: In consultation with the Respective Branch Heads, the Vice President for Administration, Director of Finance, and Chair of Internal Affairs may cut the requested budget with the goal of ensuring the Council's financial security.
  - c) Use of non-SAF Funds: As the non-SAF Funds accrued by the Council is not governed by SAF Guidelines, it shall only be absolutely used when the requests for funds are not SAF-fundable.
    - 2. Format of Budget: The Annual Budget shall specify the following:
  - a) Allocations to the Council: The amount of money allocated to the various parts of the Council.
  - b) Discretionary Funds: The amount of funds that may be spent under the authority of the Executive Officers or Representative Body Officers, without the approval of the Representative Body as a whole. However, individual Representatives may seek discretionary funding if it is approved by the Representative Body Officers.

- c) Reserve: The amount of money in a contingency reserve fund.
  - i) The Council shall ensure that one percent of the total requested budget for SAF and non-SAF Funds, are put into a reserve fund.
  - ii) These funds shall only be used in the event of a financial deficit that is not accounted for by any discretionary funds and were unforeseen by the Director of Finance. This fund shall only be used as a last resort. To use these funds, authorization from the Vice President for Administration is required.

3. Limitations to the Budget:

- a) Student Activities Committee: As the Committee is the final board of approval for the Council's SAF budgetary request, final approval will come from the said Committee.
- 4. Approval of Budget: The summer budget shall be submitted to the Representative Body in the form of a bill, which must be approved before the Representative Body adjourns for the summer. The academic budget shall cover the academic year and be introduced at the beginning of the fall semester. The summer budget shall remain in effect until a fall budget is enacted.

Article IV. Student Organization Policies

I. Recognition of Contracted Independent Organizations

A. General Policies

- 1. Definition of Contracted Independent Organization: The term "Contracted Independent Organization" shall be used to describe a student organization at the University that is recognized by Student Council, and is therefore eligible to apply for Student Activity Fee funds, storage space, and other Council resources.
- 2. Criteria for Contracted Independent Organizations: All Contracted Independent Organizations must meet the following criteria:

- a) Student Membership: More than fifty percent of the group's members must be students enrolled on-Grounds at the University.
- b) Officers Must Be Students: All of the group's officers must be students enrolled on-Grounds at the University.
- c) Constitution and Officers on File: The group must keep an up-to-date copy of its constitution and a list of its officers on file with the Council.
- d) Signed Agreement: The group must have signed a Contracted Independent Organization agreement, and have agreed to its policies, including the non-discrimination policy.
- e) Prohibition Against the Use of Official Titles: A proposed organization must comply with the University's policies regarding the use of official titles and images.

3. Procedure for Recognition

- a) Application for Recognition: A group seeking recognition as a Contracted Independent Organization shall submit a petition to the Vice President for Organizations which shall include the following materials:
  - (i) Statement of Purpose: The petition shall include a brief statement describing the group's purpose.
  - (ii) Constitution: The petition shall include a copy of the group's constitution.
  - (iii) List of Officers and Members: The petition shall include a list of the group's officers as well as a list of active members.
  - (iv) Overview of Activity: The petition shall include a history of past programming hosted by the group, as well as a list of anticipated future programming.
  - (v) Community Partners: The petition shall include a list of other organizations with whom the group intends to collaborate.

- (vi.) Operating Plan: The petition shall include an operating plan detailing the group's operating expenses, sources of support, and both short-term and long-term objectives.
- b) Timeline for Petition: The Vice President for Organizations shall set the timeline in which petitions for recognition may be submitted and reviewed. The dates for submitting petitions should occur semesterly and be publicized to the student body.
- c) Criteria for Recommendation: The Vice President for Organization shall review the group's petition, and make a recommendation for or against recognition to the Representative Body using the following criteria:
  - (i) Sustainability: The group should show evidence of sustainability over a period of years, unless the group's objectives are short-term in nature.
  - (ii) Non-Duplication: A proposed organization should not duplicate the purpose of another organization in active existence at the University.
  - (iii) Non-Revival of Terminated Organizations: Organizations whose recognition was withdrawn by the Representative Body as the result of a review hearing, as described in Section B, may not request recognition again until the duration of the sanction has elapsed.
- d) Procedure for Recognition: The Vice President for Organizations shall submit his or her recommendations to the Representative Body in the form of a bill, which shall contain the following information:
  - (i) Name of Organization: The bill shall list the name of the organization that has applied for recognition.
  - (ii) Purpose: The bill shall include a short description of the group's purpose.
  - (iii) Recommendation: The bill shall include a recommendation for or against recognition.

- e) Report: The Vice President for Organizations shall provide a detailed report to the Representative Body demonstrating how the organization meets the criteria for recognition. They may also include additional information for Representatives to consider, including the application, constitution, and any other evidence.
- f) Vote: The Representative Body shall recognize groups as Contracted Independent Organizations by passing this bill with a majority vote; separate votes on individual organizations may be held by dividing the question as necessary.
- g) Appeals: If a group's petition for recognition is denied by the Representative Body, the group may request a review hearing to overturn this decision, as described in Section B.

4. Renewal of Recognition

- a) Timeline for Renewal: All Contracted Independent Organizations must be renewed on an annual basis to remain active; an organization which has not sought renewal for the coming academic year by the end of the spring semester shall be considered inactive.
- b) Procedure for Renewal: An active Contracted Independent Organization in good standing may be renewed as follows:
  - (i) Submission of New Agreement: An organization seeking renewal must submit a new Contracted Independent Organization agreement, as well as updated copies of the information specified in Subsection 2, Part a.
  - (ii) Approval by the Vice President for Organizations: If the information submitted by the organization is in order and submitted on time, the Vice President for Organizations shall certify the Contracted Independent Organization as renewed for the following academic year; the Representative Body's approval shall not be required. Student Council may receive assistance from University staff members in processing renewal submission or may designate this responsibility to professional staff to complete in accordance with these policies.

- (iii) Refusal by Vice President for Organizations: The Vice President for Organizations shall have the authority to deny renewal to any organization that has substantially altered its goals, constitution, or any other defining aspect of itself, and require that organization to seek re-recognition from the Representative Body.
- (iv) Completion of the CIO Census: Organizations seeking renewal must provide information about their mission, membership, activities, financial standing, and other relevant information as the Council deems necessary.

5. Inactive Organizations

- a) Maintenance of Records: The records of inactive Contracted Independent Organizations shall remain on file for a period of three years before being permanently expunged; organizations whose recognition was withdrawn by the Representative Body shall not be subject to this rule. The Council may designate this responsibility to the University staff members.
- b) Procedure for Reactivation: An inactive organization may be reactivated as follows:
  - (i) Submission of a New Petition: An organization seeking reactivation must submit a new petition for recognition as a Contracted Independent Organization, including the information specified in Subsection 2, Part a.
  - (ii) Approval by the Vice President for Organizations: If the information submitted by the organization is in order, the Vice President for Organizations shall certify the Contracted Independent Organization as reactivated; the Representative Body's approval shall not be required.
  - (iii) Refusal by Vice President for Organizations: If the organization has substantially altered its goals, constitution, or any other defining aspect of the group, the Vice President for Organizations shall have the authority to deny renewal and require the organization to seek re-recognition from the Representative Body.

c) Requirement of Inactivity: An organization must be inactive for more than one year to seek reactivation. Organizations that failed to renew during the spring semester must renew during the next renewal period.

II. Review of Contracted Independent Organizations

A. Initiation of a Review Hearing

- 1. Appeal by Group Denied Recognition: A review hearing may be requested by any group which has been denied recognition as a Contracted Independent Organization, if it submits a written appeal to the Vice- President for Organizations no later than one week after the Representative Body has voted to deny recognition.
- 2. Suspension or Restriction by Representative Body: The Representative Body may vote to suspend a Contracted Independent Organization's recognition or to restrict its access to resources provided by the Council to Contracted Independent Organizations for any of the following reasons, which shall automatically trigger a review hearing to determine the group's status.
  - a) Violation of Agreement: Alleged failure of the organization to comply with the terms of the Contracted Independent Organization agreement.
  - b) Fraudulence: Alleged fraudulence, including the misuse of Council funds or misrepresentation of information provided to the Council.
  - c) Violations of Law or University Rules: Any alleged violation of University regulations, state, or federal law.

B. Procedure for Review Hearings

- 1. Scheduling of Review Hearing: As soon as a review is initiated, the Chair shall schedule a hearing to take place within the next two weeks, and the Vice President for Organizations shall promptly notify the affected Organization of the time and date of the hearing.
- 2. Procedure for a Review Hearing: Hearings to review the qualification of a Contracted Independent Organization shall proceed as follows:

- a) Presentation by Council: The Vice President for Organizations, or a Representative who voted in favor of the review or against recognition, shall present the case against qualification for no more than five minutes.
- b) Presentation by Organization: One or more representatives from the Organization shall present their case to the Representative Body for no more than five minutes.
- c) Questions and Answers: The Representative Body shall have ten minutes to ask questions of both sides, which may be extended by a majority vote for a maximum of five additional minutes which may not be extended by further motion or vote.
- d) Summaries: The Council's spokespersons shall be permitted no more than three minutes to summarize their case, followed by a summary of no longer than three minutes by the Organization's representatives.
- 3. Debate and Vote: The Representative Body shall proceed to debate the qualification of the Contracted Independent Organization for a maximum of five minutes, which may be extended for up to an extra ten minutes by majority vote. The motion in order shall be to withdraw recognition, or uphold an earlier denial of recognition; if a majority of the Representative Body does not approve this motion, the organization shall be recognized (or re-recognized) as a Contracted Independent Organization.
- 4. Appeals: A decision to withdraw or deny recognition to a Contracted Independent Organization may be appealed to the Rules and Ethics Board, if the organization believes the decision to be in violation of the Council's Constitution or Bylaws no other appeals shall be possible.
- 5. Consultation: Should an organization be rejected for CIO Status, the Vice President of Organizations must inform them of their option to schedule an appointment with the Organizations Recognition Committee to seek their help in appealing for CIO Status. The Organizations Recognition Committee maintains the responsibility to advise the appealing organization on how to reform their plans to make them eligible for approval for CIO Status if said group requests an appointment. Such appointments must occur prior to the hearing date. Furthermore, the Organizations Recognition Committee will then submit a concise document to the Chair of the Representative body to be sent to the entire Representative Body which should outline the Committee's suggestions for whether or not to deny the appeal or recognize the group as a CIO during the hearing process. This document must be sent to the Representative Body no less than 48 hours prior to the time of the hearing.

III. Punishment of Violations

A. Limitations on Representative Body's Authority

1. The Representative Body may vote to withdraw recognition from a Contracted Independent Organization or to restrict access to resources provided by the Council to Contracted Independent Organizations. The Representative Body will determine the duration of the sanction, not to exceed one year.

B. Referral to Authorities

1. Alleged violations of the Honor Code, Standards of Conduct, or state and federal law by the officers of a Contracted Independent Organization shall be referred to the Honor Committee, the University Judiciary Committee, or other appropriate authorities by the Vice President for Organizations.

IV. Appropriations

A. Appropriations Policies

- 1. Guidelines for Appropriation of the Student Activity Fee
  - a) Policies of the Board of Visitors: The Appropriations Committee and the Representative Body shall follow the policies set by the Rector and Board of Visitors of the University of Virginia regarding the use of Student Activity Fee monies.
  - b) Standing Rules for Appropriations: The Appropriations Committee may draft its own Appropriations rules, provided that such rules are consistent with the policies established by the Board of Visitors and have been approved by a two-thirds majority of the Representative Body via inclusion in the SAF Guidelines as described in Article II, Section V, Subsection B, Part 1, Point iv.

- 2. Timeline for Appropriations: Contracted Independent Organizations shall be allowed to request funds on a rolling basis through funding request windows that meet the following specifications:
  - a) The Appropriations Committee shall open three funding request windows during the school year: one during the summer, one during the Fall semester, and one during the Spring semester. The schedule of each window should be made available to all Contracted Independent Organizations.
  - b) The summer funding request window shall be opened and closed at the discretion of the Appropriations Committee and Vice President for Organizations.
  - c) The Appropriations Committee shall open the semester funding request windows no later than one week after the semester starts and close it no sooner than four weeks before final exams start. The Appropriations Committee leadership and Vice President for Organizations have discretion over the exact timelines, provided they adhere to these rules.
  - d) The Appropriations Committee shall process funding requests on a rolling basis, and shall take no longer than one month from the time of submission to review individual applications and allocate Student Activities Fee funds. Additionally, all requests submitted during a given semester must be fully processed during that semester.
  - e) Emergency Funding: The Appropriations Committee shall devise an expedited review process for Contracted Independent Organizations that are in need of urgent funding. The Appropriations Committee shall have discretion over what funding needs constitute "urgent" ones. This process should be made transparent to all Contracted Independent Organizations.
- 3. Requirements for Funding: To be eligible to apply for Student Activity Fee funds, an organization must meet the following criteria:
  - a) Recognized as a Contracted Independent Organization: The organization must have been recognized by the Council as an active Contracted Independent Organization, or otherwise identified as eligible by the SAF guidelines.

- b) Renewal of Recognition: Contracted Independent Organizations must have renewed their recognition for the academic year in which they are requesting and anticipate spending Student Activities Fee funds.
- c) Organization Must Qualify as Fundable: The organization must fall into one of the categories of fundable organizations set by the Board of Visitors.
- d) Absence of Debt: The organization must not be in debt.
- e) Information Agreement: The requesting organization must agree to provide any information on its finances, inventories, and maintenance of SAF-funded expenses that the Appropriations Committee or Board of Audit and Management request in order to make a funding decision.

4. Reviewing Requests and Allocating Funding:

- a) Reviewing Requests: Any request for funding should be reviewed by at least two members of the Appropriations Committee, unless reviewed by a member of Committee leadership. Committee leadership should facilitate the review process and provide ongoing guidance and assistance to members conducting reviews.
- b) Information Collection: The Appropriations Committee should take steps to collect any information that is necessary to make a decision on a given request's fundability. This includes but is not limited to sending email follow-ups and conducting hearings with the requesting organization's financial officer(s).
- c) Funding Decisions: The reviewers assigned to a given funding request should consult Appropriations Committee leadership in the event of any uncertainty or disagreement over a request's fundability. Committee leadership should likewise consult the Vice President for Organizations if they are uncertain. The Vice President for Organizations has final decision-making authority when it comes to Contracted Independent Organization funding.
- d) Allocating Funds: The Appropriations Committee leadership and the Vice President for Organizations shall have the power to order universal cuts to all allocations made in a given appropriations cycle, when necessary to achieve the Committee's budget goals. These cuts shall be made transparent to all requesting organizations.

- e) Appeals: The Board of Audit and Management—in coordination with the Appropriations Committee—shall establish a process for CIOs to appeal funding decisions, following the rules outlined in Article II, Section VI, Subsection A, Part 1, Point b. This process shall be made transparent to all requesting organizations.
- f) Conflicts of Interest: No individual may make decisions on the funding of any organization for which they are actively a member of, regardless of their position in Student Council.
- 5. Rules for Received Funds: A Contracted Independent Organization which applies for funding from Student Council must agree to the following:
  - a) Use of Funds: Any allocated funds must be used for the specific purpose for which they were granted, though the Appropriations Committee may establish a process to request the repurposing of allocated funds.
  - b) Return of Unused Funds: Any allocated funds not used shall automatically revert back to the Student Activities Fee fund no sooner than the end of the semester during which the allocation was made and no later than the end of the academic year during which the allocation was made.
- B. Informing and Supporting Contracted Independent Organizations
  - 1. Student Activities Fee (SAF) Guidelines: The Appropriations Co-Directors and the Vice President for Organizations shall be responsible for distributing a SAF Guidelines to all Contracted Independent Organizations, which must be approved by a two-thirds majority of the Representative Body, and shall contain the following information:
    - a) Rules for Allocating Funds: The manual shall contain a summary of all relevant sections of the Board of Visitors' policies for the allocation of the Student Activities Fee, any additional rules specified in these Bylaws, and any Rules set by the Appropriations Committee in accordance with Article IV, Section IV, Subsection A, Part 1, Point b.
    - b) Description of Appropriations Process: The manual shall include a full general description of all appropriations processes.

- 2. Student Council Website: The Appropriations Committee shall maintain a page on the Student Council website with up-to-date information and resources relevant to the Student Activities Fee appropriations process.
  - a) Information: The web page should include detailed instructions on each step of the appropriations process from submitting a funding request to accessing and spending allocated funds.
  - b) Resources: The web page should contain links to the SAF Guidelines, funding request form, Vice President for Student Affairs' Finance Office payment request forms, and any other necessary or supplemental resources relevant to the appropriations process.
- 3. Outreach to Contracted Independent Organizations: The Appropriations Committee should hold routine office hours and/or host funding information sessions to provide direct support to Contracted Independent Organizations.
- 4. Process Communications: The Appropriations Committee should routinely communicate on the status of an organization's funding request and provide information on next steps with the organization's stated point of contact during the review process.

C. Training of the Appropriations Committee

- 1. Appropriations Committee leadership shall be responsible for conducting a comprehensive training for all new and returning members at the beginning of their appointed term. This training should include information on the general purpose of the Committee, the appropriations process, how to review requests, and what the rules for funding requested expenditures are.
- Appropriations Committee leadership shall communicate to members any changes to the SAF Guidelines, their interpretation, or internal review procedures and provide additional training where necessary.
- 3. Appropriations Committee leadership shall maintain an internal policies and procedures document with comprehensive, up-to-date information on the general purpose and philosophy of the Committee, the appropriations process and how to review requests, and what the rules for funding requested expenditures are.

4. Appropriations Committee leadership shall coordinate with the Board of Audit and Management to ensure consistency, fairness, and accuracy in the Committee's funding decisions.

D. Oversight of the Appropriations Committee

- 1. Application Process: The members of the Appropriations Committee shall be selected as described in Article II, Section B, and Subsection a.
- 2. Oversight by the Board of Audit and Management
  - a) Appeals: The Board of Audit and Management shall be the first body to hear and adjudicate appeals made by CIOs regarding Appropriations Committee funding decisions. The Board may coordinate with the Appropriations Committee and/or the appealing CIO to collect additional information, but it shall remain impartial in its decision-making.
  - b) Routine Internal Audits: The Board of Audit and Management shall establish a process for conducting routine audits of the funding decisions made by the Appropriations Committee to ensure that the committee funds certain types of expenses fairly and consistently across requests, and that the committee's decisions adhere to the funding rules outlined in the SAF Guidelines. The Board shall notify the Vice President for Organizations and Appropriations Committee of the findings of their audits. The Board shall also inform the student body of their findings in a way that aggregates and anonymizes CIO funding data.
  - c) Mistake Rectification: The Board of Audit and Management shall further establish mechanisms to ensure that CIOs are notified and compensated when incorrectly denied funding for a requested expense. The Board shall also coordinate with the Vice President for Organizations and Appropriations Committee leadership to ensure that they are made aware of any mistakes in funding decisions and that similar errors are not made going forward.
  - d) Limitations on Oversight: The Board of Audit and Management may not alter the amount of SAF funding allocated to a CIO without notifying the Appropriations Committee and receiving approval from the Vice President of Organizations.

e) Conflicts of Interest: Pursuant to Article IV, Section IV, Subsection A, Part 4, Point f, no individual on the Board of Audit and Management may make decisions on the funding of any organization for which they are actively a member of.

3. Oversight by Representative Body

- a) Reports by the Appropriations Committee: The Appropriations Committee shall inform the Representative Body at least once per semester on Student Activities Funds funding data, which shall include data and statistics on all requests received by the Committee, the funds which the Committee has allocated, the purposes for which these funds were allocated, and the Committee's budget projections for the Student Activities Fee fund.
- b) Limitations on Oversight: The Representative Body may not vote to overturn any funding decision made by the Appropriations Committee, unless the organization requesting funds has made a formal appeal as described in Subsection 3.

1. The Chair of the Sustainability Committee shall serve as the Chair of the Green Leaders Council.

- 2. In each annual iteration of the Green Leaders Council, the Chair of the Sustainability Committee shall solicit applications to identify 10 or fewer sustainability organizations that are most relevant to the chosen policy area. Those organizations shall be invited to send one official liaison to the Green Leaders Council.
- 3. In select cases, at the discretion of the Chair of the Sustainability Committee, individuals may apply to serve as a liaison representing only themself.
- 4. Any individual may attend and contribute to the Green Leaders Council meetings.

D. Meetings and Activity of the Council

- 1. The 10 liaisons shall meet biweekly or monthly to coordinate interorganizational organizing, lobbying, programming, etc.
- 2. Each liaison shall report on the Green Leaders Council's plans/progress to their respective organizations' Executive Boards and general memberships.
- 3. Each liaison shall also execute or delegate any actions/tasks that the Green Leaders Council has designated to their respective organization.
- 4. The Chair of the Green Leaders Council shall update the Sustainability Committee on the council's progress each month.

VI. Survivor Support & Prevention Coalition and Advocacy Board

A. Purpose

1. The purpose of the Survivor Support & Prevention Coalition and Advocacy Board (SSPC) is to serve as a formal coalition of survivor support student organizations and community stakeholders that shall be stewarded by Student Council, but ultimately managed by the members themselves. The coalition shall function as a space for survivors and survivor advocates to meet, discuss, and work on student-centered University policy reform and improvement.

B. Composition of the Coalition and Advocacy Board

- 1. The SSPC shall be comprised of representatives from, but not limited to, the following student organizations and University units:
  - a. Culture of Respect Educators (CORE)

- 4. Multiple offices may share a single session with the board to facilitate the required frequency of meetings with administrators.

Article VI. Rules and Ethics Board Policies

I. Ethical and Professional Standards

A. Code of Ethics

- 1. Purpose of Code of Ethics:
  - a. All members of Student Council, both elected and appointed, shall uphold the following standards of conduct.
- 2. University Disciplinary Procedures:
  - a. Members shall uphold the 12 Standards of Conduct set forth by the University Judiciary Committee. Any member of Student Council who has charges brought against them by the University Judiciary Committee shall inform the Chair of the Rules and Ethics Board within 72 hours of receiving a formal notice or complaint from the University or applicable investigative and adjudicating body. Members involved in active University Judiciary Committee proceedings will be temporarily suspended from the Council until a resolution is reached. The Rules and Ethics Board shall determine a sanction, if applicable.

- b. Members shall uphold the University of Virginia Honor Code. Any member of Student Council who has charges brought against them by the Honor Committee shall inform the Chair of the Rules and Ethics Board within 72 hours of receiving a formal notice or complaint from the University or applicable investigative and adjudicating body. Members involved in active Honor proceedings will be temporarily suspended from the Council until a resolution is reached. Any member of the Council found guilty in an Honor trial will automatically be precluded from serving in the Council per Article 4, Section 2, Clause B of the Student Council Constitution.
- c. Any member of Student Council who has been notified that they are an active respondent in a violation of the University's Policy on Sexual and Gender-Based Harassment and Other Forms of Interpersonal Violence (HRM-041), including Title IX and/or Sexual Misconduct proceedings, shall inform the Chair of the Rules and Ethics Board within 72 hours of receiving a formal notice or complaint from the University or applicable investigative and adjudicating body. Members involved in active proceedings encompassed by the University's HRM-041 Policy as a respondent will be temporarily suspended from the Council until a resolution is reached. Any member of the Council found responsible for a violation of the University's HRM-041 Policy will automatically be precluded from serving in the Council.
- d. Members found in violation of any other University policies and rules and regulations as outlined in the most current Undergraduate Record and Graduate Record shall inform the Chair of the Rules and Ethics Board within 72 hours of receiving a formal notice or complaint from the University or applicable investigative and adjudicating body. The Rules and Ethics Board shall determine a sanction, if applicable.
- e. A student member who discloses a pending charge or case against them shall be suspended unless they disclose the basis of the proceeding to the full Rules and Ethics Board which may decide by a majority vote of the Board to waive the suspension of membership.

3. Conflicts of Interest:

a. A Student Council member shall refrain from exercising his or her official authority in cases where a conflict of interest would likely be perceived by an informed and neutral observer; accordingly:

- i. Conflicts of Interest for Representatives: Representatives shall disclose any conflicts of interest regarding business pending before the Representative Body, and abstain from voting or participating in debate on such business.
- ii. Conflicts of Interest for Officers: Executive and appointed Officers shall delegate decisions that would potentially involve a conflict of interest to other Officers.
- iii. Conflict of Interest of Dual Service: Except as otherwise specified or permitted in the bylaws, no Representative may serve in any capacity as an appointed member of Student Council and no person serving in any appointed position, if elected a Representative, shall continue in office.

4. Use of Position for Personal Benefit:

- a. Council members shall refrain from using their position in ways that would primarily benefit themselves or their associates at the expense of other students, such as:
  - i. Appointments to Official Positions: Appointments to official positions shall be made according to qualifications only.
  - ii. Handling of Council Funds: Council members shall ensure that all Council funds are spent in an impartial manner, solely for the benefit of Council and the Student Body.
  - iii. Decisions about Organizations: Council members shall not participate in official decisions regarding organizations in which they are actively involved.

5. Non-Discrimination:

a. Members of Student Council shall uphold the non-discrimination clause in the Student Council Constitution and as required by the University.

6. Data Privacy:

a. All Data Users must annually read, sign and agree to the most recent UVa Student Council Data Privacy Policy (Appendix A), as agreed upon by the VPA and University of Virginia Legal Counsel. For this purpose of this Council, "Data Users" are defined as individuals who acknowledge acceptance of their responsibilities, as described in University Policy IRM-003 and its associated standards and procedures, to protect and appropriately use data to which they are given access. For the purpose of this Data Privacy Policy, Data Users include the UVa Student Council Executive Board, Data Science Committee Director(s) and general members, all Support and Access Service Directors and general members, and anyone else who is authorized by the Data Science Director(s) and/or the VPA to access data collected by, given to, or held by UVa Student Council, including to the Data Science Committee and Support and Access Services Branch.

B. Enforcement of Code of Ethics

1. Responsibility for Upholding Code: All members of Council, regardless of whether they are elected or appointed, shall be expected to uphold and enforce the Council's Code of Ethics in the performance of their duties, and promptly address any reported violations. If knowledge of violations is discovered, then the person in question will be immediately suspended from all duties on Student Council and reported to the Chair of the Rules and Ethics Board.

C. Hearings by Rules and Ethics Board

1. Complaints regarding violations of the Council's Code of Ethics may be directed to the Rules and Ethics Board, which shall be empowered to conduct hearings and order appropriate corrective action.

II. Board Policies

A. Authority and Jurisdiction of the Board

- 1. Power of Judicial Review: The Board shall serve as the interpreter and arbiter of the Constitution and Bylaws of Student Council, as well as all legislation passed by the Representative Body. This power shall not extend to strike down in whole the Bylaws of Student Council.
- 2. Enforcement of Rulings: The Board shall have the power to issue any of the following in order to enforce its rulings:

- a) Writs of Mandamus: The Board may issue writs of mandamus to compel any Officer or Representative to perform his or her duties in a manner consistent with the Constitution and Bylaws.
- b) Injunctions: The Board may issue injunctions to prevent any Officer or Representative from taking an action contrary to the Constitution and Bylaws.
- c) Suspension: The Board may temporarily suspend any elected Officer, appointed Officer, staff, or member of Student Council for dereliction of duty, dishonor, gross incompetence, or contempt of the Rules and Ethics Board.
- d) Closure of Council: In circumstances when Student Council is operating willfully contrary to the Constitution, the Bylaws, the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia as pertain to student governments, or any combination thereof, the Board shall have the power to prevent Council from meeting, disbursing or appropriating money, and conduct any business other than such as is necessary to return Council to full operational compliance with the aforementioned items.
- 3. Assurance of Parliamentary Knowledge: The Chair of the Rules and Ethics Board, using a manner that they and the balance of the Board shall agree upon, shall present from among its membership parliamentarians for meetings of the Representative Body and Representative Body Committee meetings to the Chair of the Representative Body.

B. Selection of the Board

- 1. Selection after Spring Elections: The incoming members of the Rules and Ethics Board shall be selected by the President by the end of the spring semester. The term of the past board is valid until the new board is appointed by the President and approved by the Representative Body.
- 2. Selection of Nominees: The President shall select a slate of nominees according to the following criteria:
  - a) Constitutional Knowledge. Familiarity with the Council's Constitution and Bylaws. A test prepared by the President may be administered to adjudicate such knowledge. It is advised that the President consult outgoing members of the Rules and Ethics Board to take other measures to ensure the test covers relevant information.

- b) Experience: Familiarity with Parliamentary procedures.
- c) Diverse Background: Breadth of representation according to School and undergraduate/graduate status, to comply with the constitutional requirements for the Board's membership.
- 3. Confirmation: The President shall submit the slate of nominees, with one nominee designated as Chair, to the Representative Body for approval; the Representative Body may, at its discretion, request more information about the nominees before voting.

C. Duties of the Chair of the Board

- 1. Chairing of Hearings: The Chair of the Board shall chair all hearings and meetings of the Rules and Ethics Board, unless this responsibility is delegated to another member.
- 2. Organization of Meetings: The Chair of the Board shall be responsible for arranging a convenient time and location for all hearings and Board meetings.
- 3. Administration of Appeals and Rulings: The Chair of the Board shall be responsible for receiving all appeals submitted to the Board, communicating the Board's rulings to all affected parties, and submitting copies of the Board's decisions to the Council's webmaster for public distribution.
- 4. Liaison to the Council. The Chair of the Board shall act as the Board's liaison to the other branches of Student Council. They shall attend all General Body meetings and shall ensure the attendance, at least one time per semester, of all members of the Board.

D. General Policies and Duties

1. Oath of Office: All members of the Rules and Ethics Board shall take the following oath before assuming office:

"On my honor, I will perform the duties of the office of member of the Rules and Ethics Board to the best of my ability, and I will uphold the Constitution and Bylaws of the University of Virginia Student Council."

- 2. Meetings: All hearings of the Rules and Ethics Board shall be open to the University community; deliberations and administrative meetings shall take place behind closed doors.
- 3. Quorum: Quorum for the Rules and Ethics Board shall be a simple majority of all members.
- 4. Recusal: Whenever a member of the Board has a conflict of interest regarding an item of business before the Board, the following rules shall apply:
  - a) Personal Recusal: A member with a conflict of interest shall be expected to refrain voluntarily from participating in the hearing of the case or the subsequent deliberations.
  - b) Vote by the Board: The Board may vote, with a two-thirds majority of all members, to require a member believed to have a conflict of interest to recuse themself.

E. Representative Body Meeting Attendance

1. All members of the Board are expected to attend one General Body meeting each semester, excluding the first meeting of the semester or the meeting at which they are confirmed.

III. Appeals to the Board

A. Initiating a Complaint

1. Categories of Complaint:

a) Complaint by a Student at Large: Any student of the University who can demonstrate to the Board's satisfaction that they were impacted in a negative way by an alleged violation of the Council's Constitution, Bylaws, and/or Code of Ethics, shall be entitled to a hearing.

- b) Complaint by a Member of Council: Any Member of Council who believes the Council's Constitution, Bylaws, and/or Code of Ethics has been violated, regardless of whether they were directly impacted by the violation, may request a hearing.
- c) Complaint by a Member of the Board: Any Board member who believes the Council's Constitution, Bylaws, and/or Code of Ethics has been violated, regardless of whether they were directly impacted by the violation, may request a hearing. The complainant member must recuse themselves from any vote on the matter.
  - 2. Format of Complaint: Complaints must take the following form:
- a) Written Format: All complaints must be submitted in written form to the Chair of the Board.
- b) Details of Alleged Violation: All complaints shall specify the name(s) of the member(s) alleged to have violated the Constitution and Bylaws, a description of the action(s) in question, and citations of all relevant passages from the Constitution and Bylaws.
- 3. Acceptance of Complaint: The Board shall have up to one week upon receipt of a complaint to decide by majority vote whether a complainant has standing, and to grant or reject a hearing accordingly.

B. Hearing Procedures

- 1. Scheduling of Hearing: The Chair of the Board shall schedule a public hearing to take place no later than two weeks after the receipt of a complaint.
  - a) Hearings will be public unless the matter pertains to Title IX violations, UJC charges, or other non-disclosable matters.
- 2. Format of Hearing: Hearings shall proceed as follows:
  - a) Complainant: The Complainant(s), or an authorized representative, shall be allowed up to ten minutes to present the case that a violation has taken place.
  - b) Defendant: The member(s) accused in the complaint, or an authorized representative, shall be allowed up to ten minutes to present a defense.

- c) Question and Answer: Members of the Board shall have up to twenty minutes to ask questions of both presenters.
- d) Summary: The Complainant(s) shall be allowed up to three minutes to summarize, followed by up to three minutes of summary by the Defendant(s).

C. Rendering of a Judgment

- 1. Timing of Deliberations: The Board's deliberations shall take place in closed session immediately after the hearing.
- 2. Format of Deliberations: Before deliberations begin, each Board member shall be allowed up to two minutes to express his or her analysis of the arguments presented during the hearing; the Board shall then have unlimited time to debate the matter.
- 3. Vote on a Judgment: The Board shall decide, by a majority vote, whether a violation of the Constitution, Bylaws, or Code of Ethics has taken place, according to each member's interpretation of the Constitution and Bylaws as well as the facts and arguments presented in the hearing. The Board shall then decide, by majority vote, what steps shall be taken to correct the violation.
- 4. Drafting and Publication of Judgment: The prevailing majority shall appoint a member to draft the Board's judgment; no Board members shall speak publicly of the outcome of the hearing until after the judgment has been published. Minority opinions as well as concurring opinions either with the majority or minority may also be included in the judgment but shall neither add nor detract from the corrective measures adopted in the prevailing majority judgment.
